

33 Edgar St, Newmarket

Elevated City Living

This home will take your breath away with its breezy and elevated position which boasts panoramic views of Brisbane City. Situated at the best, and highest, location on the street this property takes advantage of being one of Newmarket's highest points with an expansive front-facing verandah. This undercover area is ideal for entertaining at night to soak up the lights of the cityscape over a glass of wine, or for an early morning coffee as you take in the peaceful leafy street.

Neatly flowing into the living area, hardwood floors and authentic cornices imbue the home with that quintessential Queenslander charm. Adding to this atmosphere is the internal fireplace to keep you warm all winter long. In the summer months, this home is kept cool with ducted air conditioning, split system air conditioning, and fans throughout.

Whilst still retaining its origins and appeal, this home has been suitably modernized to fit the needs of a young professional couple or budding family alike. This split-level home offers an abundance of space with four bedrooms, a unique offering of three bathrooms, and two lounge spaces. The master bedroom dominates its own wing of the home on the upstairs level with city views. This room has both an expansive ensuite and ample wardrobe storage. As an added bonus, there is a private balcony off the master bedroom.

The large and versatile downstairs space can be put to various uses and represents separate living potential. Annexed to this space is a built-in bar with Fisher & Paykel fridge. There is also a trap underneath this bar so it is easily converted to a second kitchenette - meaning the entire downstairs space could be separately rented as a bonus income stream.

This space opens onto the enviable salt chlorinated swimming pool - perfect for summer BBQs with the whole family. Further adding to the ambiance of this space is the outdoor fireplace, which is complemented by the pond. Fencing around the home provides the necessary privacy for young families and puppy parents alike. This home also offers a two-car carport and a single garage space for storage.

You will also be delighted with the minimal cost of utilities thanks to the 3.5 k/w solar panels which have been installed at the property. For peace of mind, there are security screens throughout.
